About Our Speaker:

Dr. Andrew HUI

General Manager / Chief Operating Officer
Canossa Hospital (Caritas)

Dr. Hui is currently the General Manager and Chief Operating Officer of Canossa Hospital in Hong Kong. He serves on the Steering Committee of the Hong Kong Corporate Innovation Index (CII), which is initiated by CUHK and ITC, and holds the position of Adjunct Associate Professor at the University of Hong Kong's Institute of China Business (ICB). Previously, he was the General Manager for Denmark ALK Pharmaceutical in the Greater China region. With a career spanning 30 years, Dr Hui has specialised in business strategy design, market expansion, and the innovation, development, and introduction of products.

From 2009 to 2017, Dr. Hui received multiple Outstanding Leadership Awards within the industry and was awarded the 2014 Greater China Outstanding Marketer Award. In the academic realm, he received the Best Research Design Award and achieved Distinction Honours in the Doctor of Business Administration program at the City University of Hong Kong for the 2014-2015 academic year. His research focused on the establishment of doctor-patient relationships and trust, along with their societal impacts. Some findings from his studies have been published in various international journals, including the Journal of Business Research. In 2016, he was recognised with the DBA Outstanding Alumni Award by the City University of Hong Kong for his contributions to the University and society.

Dr. Hui is an exceptional authority in his field, boasting an impressive academic background that includes a Doctor of Business Administration from the City University of Hong Kong, dual Master of Arts from the University of Exeter, UK, and both a Master of Science in Marketing and a Bachelor of Science in Biology from The Chinese University of Hong Kong. His qualifications are further enhanced by his Certified Health Executive (CHE) and Chartered Marketer designations and his status as a dual Fellow of ACHSM and HKCHSE, underscoring his comprehensive expertise and commitment to excellence.
